

The 22 Demands of the People of the United States of America

We the people, that is, the natural persons, men women and children, lawfully residing within the fifty states of the United States of America and the District of Columbia, Do hereby direct Congress and the President to enact and enforce, effective immediately, the following demands:

The President shall by executive order, direct the US treasury to create United States Treasury currency, in notes, coins, electronic funds, redeemable in either gold, silver, units of energy or of labor, completely independent of the Federal Reserve Bank or any foreign or privately owned entity. The US Treasury shall not engage in fractional reserve banking. All banks within the fifty states and District of Columbia shall issue US currency. Payments, loans and benefits from the US treasury shall be made in US currency. The 50 states, local communities and private companies shall be free to create their own complimentary currencies by whatever systems are workable, except for fractional reserve, which shall be considered counterfeit and therefore outlawed. The Federal Reserve Bank, having fraudulently seized the assets of issuers of lawful independent currencies, shall return all items seized.

Credit shall be applied towards the mortgage payments for the primary residence of every private homeowner; fifty cents for every dollar paid for the next five years, and retroactively for the past ten years. The people shall be refunded for all money they paid to the IRS in Federal Income Taxes for the last 30 years, except for payments into Social Security. The IRS shall have no function in the lives of people except the collection of payments into social security, but shall continue to collect taxes from corporations, until the eventual replacement of the Federal Reserve System by the US treasury renders the agency obsolete. Anyone currently imprisoned for refusing to pay the federal income tax shall be immediately released.
